The image shows a McLaren Laboratory Requisition form. At the top, it features the McLaren logo and the text '030855 IVHL PORT HURON'. Below this, there are several sections for patient information, including name, date of birth, sex, and insurance details. A large section in the middle contains a detailed list of laboratory tests, organized in columns. Each test entry includes a code, a description, and a unit. The list includes various blood chemistry tests (e.g., Glucose, Cholesterol, Hemoglobin A1c), hematology tests (e.g., Hemoglobin, Hematocrit, Platelets), and other clinical tests. At the bottom of the form, there are fields for the ordering physician's name and contact information, and a section for the laboratory's use of the requisition.
