- Facilitate ethical decision-making by physicians and the healthcare team
- Educate patients, families, and staff on hospital policies affecting patient care, such as resuscitation or life-saving treatments
- Work with patients, families, and staff to help include personal values, religious, and cultural traditions in decision making
- Address questions about a patient or proxy's ability to make decisions about treatment (proxies are appointed to make decisions for patients who cannot do so for themselves)

WE ARE HERE TO HELP YOU.
Anyone may request a medical ethics consult.
To request a consult during regular business hours, please contact (248) 338-5210.
After regular business hours, please ask to speak with the Nursing Supervisor.
